Biographical/Historical

Warren Broderick, art historian of Lansingburgh, NY, compiled the research files in this collection over the period c. 1980 to the present.

Scope and Contents

Biographical and artistic materials on the life and work of artists, mostly painters, who either lived in or were a time connected with the city of Troy or more generally Rensselaer County, NY, from roughly the late 18th century into the mid-20th century, along with some miscellaneous materials pertinent to the artistic life of the area. Files include biographical accounts and records dealing with the lives of artists, and in some cases photographic or other reproductions of their works, as well as, in some cases, critical commentary. Coverage of individual artists ranges from the voluminous to the scanty. Files are arranged alphabetically by artist's name or by subject.
